Uncle Sam Refuses the Chinese Proposition

TO CEASE MILITARY EFFORTS

Surviving Ministers Said to Have Departed From Peking.

STRENGTH OF THE ALLIED FORCES

Around the City of Tien Tsin Is Reported to Be Twenty Eight Thousand to the Cabinet Officers at Washington.

Other News About the Situation in China.

Washington, July 27. — Secretary Hay signaled his return to Washington from Canton by the announcement that under no circumstances will the United States government accept the Chinese offer to turn over the foreign ministers to the internationals at Tien Tsin in consideration of a suspension of the campaign against Peking.

A long cablegram was dispatched to Rear Admiral Remy at Taku and it is believed this instruction was laid upon him. The state department claims to be pursuing an entirely consistent course in this decision. The officials point out that all of the bitter criticism in the European papers directed against the United States policy is based upon a total misunderstanding of the fundamental principles which have governed the actions of the department. At no time it is said, has the state department allowed the belief that the foreign ministers at Peking were alive to interfere in the slightest degree with the prosecution of its military plans for reaching Peking.

On the contrary, the news that the ministers were alive was accepted by the state department not as conveying absolute verity, but as an additional reason for hastening the relief column forward to Peking. It was the department's contention that even though a degree of improbability surrounded the Chinese news as to the state of affairs in Peking, yet every consideration of humanity and policy demanded that it should be given careful consideration and that it should be acted upon as if true, provided that action went toward the relief of the foreign ministers, and did not operate to prevent the consummation of any of the objects laid down in Secretary Hay's identical note.

The department is absolutely satisfied that its attitude was perfectly correct, and that even European critics will, in time, admit that fact.

Secretary Hay's decision to decline the latest Chinese proposition was based upon his determination to adhere strictly to the conditions laid down in the reply to the Chinese emperor's appeal.

The state department required that the ministers at Peking be put in communication with their governments, and the most significant condition of all, that the Chinese authorities co-operate with the relief expedition for the liberation of the legations. Until these two things are done, the state department absolutely refuses to be led into any arrangement looking to the mitigation of the punishment of the Chinese government, such as the abandonment of the expedition to Peking.

Traced to Li Hung Chang.

It is not known at present just how this last proposition reached the state department. It is inferred at the time that it came from several sources, but all are believed to be traceable to Li Hung Chang. Mr. Goodnow, our consul general at Shanghai, is the nearest United States official to Li and has acquitted himself so well up to this point that the state department does not hesitate to make free use of him as a diplomatic agent.

Therefore it may be interesting for the foreign contingent at Shanghai, who have complained against Mr. Goodnow's course with Li Hung Chang, to know that the consul general is acting in strict accordance with the instructions of the state department.

Secretary Hay has cabled him to put himself in communication with Earl Li and to avail as far as possible to that Chinese official's influence in securing the objects plainly stated in the identical note.

It does not follow that the United States is bound to accept without question any statement made by Li.

Mr. Goodnow is a shrewd man and the department of state feels itself able, using him as an intermediary, to give proper weight to anything coming from the great viceroy.

In so doing the department is carrying out its policy of making all proper use of any instrumentalities within its reach to achieve its well defined objects and it is not to be deterred from so doing by any criticism that it is thereby disturbing the solidity of the powers in their dealings with the Chinese government.

A special cabinet meeting was held in Secretary Hay's office at 11 a. m. The secretary of state, fresh from his personal intercourse with the president, was in position to advise his colleagues of the administration's purpose, and the whole Chinese situation was discussed. Besides Secretary Hay, there was present Secretary Gage, Postmaster General Smith and Secretary Root.

When the cabinet conference adjourned, it was stated that no further definite plans concerning the action of this government had been prepared. The meeting was a general interchange of opinions and views.

The government has received information, presumably from Admiral Remy, that the number of allied troops at Tien Tsin is 28,000. The advance of troops from Tien Tsin will depend upon the arrival and mobilization of troops of other nations now on the way to Taku. He said it would be impossible for the United States force, as small as it is, to go alone. It is further stated that all the United States troops that could possibly be spared had been ordered to China.

Legationers Leave Peking.

London, July 27.—The reports from Shanghai reiterate the allegation that the surviving members of the diplomatic corps have already left Peking on their way to Tien Tsin and add that the foreigners are being escorted by troops of Jung Lu, commander-in-chief of the Chinese force. This move is stated to be the outcome of very stormy interviews between Li Hung Chang and the foreign consuls and to have been taken in the hope of abating the wrath of the powers and delaying the advance of the allies toward Peking. Advice received from the same sources state that half the foreigners in Peking have been killed or wounded, or have died as the result of the privations they had undergone. Simultaneously comes a cable dispatch to the Daily Mail from Shanghai announcing that a letter has been received from Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister to China, under date of Peking, July 6, saying the legations were under constant fire and that three were still standing, but that the foreigners were receiving no assistance from the authorities. Owing to the cowardice of the Chinese, Sir Claude wrote, it was hoped the legationers would be able to hold out for a fortnight, but if they were pressed their resistance could not last for more than four days at the utmost.

"Peking Alive."

Boston, July 27.—The American board of commissioners for the foreign missions received a cablegram from Rev. Henry B. Porter, a missionary of the board, dated Chefoo, July 23, containing the words "Peking alive." Rev. Mr. Porter, who was stationed at Pang Chuang, province of Shan Tung, North China, escaped to Chefoo after the Boxer uprising. The cablegram contained only the two words "Peking alive," no intimation being given as to the evidence on which the conviction which apparently prevailed at Chefoo was based.

Letter From Goodnow.

Minneapolis, July 27.—Charles Goodnow has just received a letter from his brother, Consul General John Goodnow at Shanghai, in which the latter intimates that the conditions are even worse than has been indicated in his official cablegrams. He writes: "Chinese are leaving this city at the rate of 2,000 or 3,000 a day. The purpose of their going or their destination is not known." While he does not say so, Mr. Goodnow evidently believes that they are being mobilized somewhere.

Arrested For Murder.

New York, July 27.—Patrick Logan, 23 years old, was arrested in Brooklyn charged with the murder of his father, Edward. The dead man was struck behind the ear during a drunken fight, and remained unconscious until his death. When the son was arrested, his mother was taken to a hospital in an alcoholic stupor. After she came to her senses she said her son had killed his father while defending her from assault.

Washington, July 27.—The navy department received the following cablegram from Captain Wilde, commander of the Oregon at Kure: "Ship docked. Structural strength intact."

WANT CHEAPER RATES

Chairman Martin Complains About Attitude of Railroads.

MR. BRYAN'S NOTIFICATION SPEECH.

Democratic Standard-Bearer Says He Will Discuss the Paramount Issue at the Notification Exercises at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, July 27.—Parks M. Martin, chairman of the Democratic state committee, said that the situation with reference to railroad rates for the Bryan-Stevenson notification exercises, in August, was unchanged. "If we do not get the things for which we are asking I shall be good as my word and send the notification exercises to some other city," said he. The chairman and his associates are contending for a one fare rate for the entire state, the sale of tickets to begin August 7 and tickets to be good returning one day after the exercises.

Thomas Taggart, the Indiana member of the national committee, said that no further steps had been taken. The persons in charge of the arrangements, he said, were waiting for a final word from the railroads. He believes that the railroads will see the justice of the demands of the state committee and that in the end everything will be arranged in a way satisfactory to all.

Will Discuss Paramount Issue.

Lincoln, Neb., July 27.—William J. Bryan said that in his notification speech at Indianapolis, he would follow the plan which he pursued at the notification meeting in 1896. "The platform of that year," he said, "declared the money question to be a paramount issue and in my notification speech, I devoted almost all the time to the discussion of that question. This year the platform declares the question of imperialism to be the paramount question, and it will be the only one dealt with at any length in my notification speech. The remaining questions covered by the platform will be taken up in my letter of acceptance and subsequent speeches."

Hanna at Headquarters.

New York, July 27.—Senator Marcus A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee reached the national headquarters here after 10 a. m. He was accompanied by Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the committee. Mr. Hanna said he was much pleased with the situation, but at present had little to say for publication. After he is settled, he might be able to make some statement. Mr. Hanna went into conference immediately with Cornelius N. Bliss, Senator N. B. Scott, Joseph Manley and Frederick S. Gibbs.

Jones in New York.

New York, July 27.—Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the national Democratic committee, reached the city from Washington and went direct to the Hoffman house. He said that no national headquarters would be established in this city at present, that the state Democratic committee would manage the campaign in New York state until such time as it might be deemed proper to establish national headquarters. He will remain here five days.

American Coal For Russia.

Philadelphia, July 27.—The recent purchase of Pennsylvania soft coal for shipment to Constantinople on Russian account was followed by the announcement that the British steamship Hottasau has been chartered to load 4,000 tons of the same cargo for Gintjitsky, Russia. It is thought probable that the coal is intended for railroad consumption. Russia is just now suffering from a coal famine, the importations from England and Germany added to the rather meagre supply from her own mines being insufficient for the demands of her rapidly growing industries. More shipments to the czar's country are looked for.

Ate Dinner in the Country.

Canton, O., July 27.—President and Mrs. McKinley are devoting a portion of the day to a social diversion. They are guests at luncheon at the country home of E. A. Case, a prominent manufacturer of this city. They drove out about noon and will return towards evening. Before leaving the president disposed of the usual amount of official business, forwarded from Washington and met an usual number of callers. One of the morning visitors was Congressman Archibald Lybrand of the Delaware, Ohio, district.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., July 27.—Born Steel Range and Manufacturing company,

Cleveland, Increase from $150,000 to $300,000, and amendment changing name to Born Steel Range company, Akron Fertilizer company, Akron $25,000; McCarty-Christy company, Cleveland, Increase from $300,000 to $500,000; Eddy Oil company, Cleveland, $50,000; Independent Association of Spiritualists, Toledo.

TWO ISLANDS

Will Be Purchased by the United States From Spain.

Washington, July 27. — Arrangements have practically been completed for the purchase from Spain by the United States of the islands of Cebutu and Cagayan, which were left in Spanish possession by the treaty of Paris, although part of the Philippine archipelago. The purchase price was not made public.

It was a year after the signature of the treaty of Paris, before the fact was discovered that in laying down these boundaries the commissioners had excluded the islands of Cebutu and Cagayan. It was disclosed by the visit to that part of the archipelago of the United States ship Concord.

Attention being attracted to that quarter, the Spanish government soon discovered the defect in the boundary line.

Negotiations lasting many months followed. Finally it appeared that an exact boundary would have to be accepted, instead of one laid down in general terminology, according to the fundamental principles of common law. That being the case, it became necessary in the interest of sound policy and to prevent the existence of a probable cause of irritation in the future, to buy out Spain's rights and continue the two islands as part of the Philippine archipelago. The negotiations practically may be regarded as closed on the basis of a cash payment to Spain by the United States of $100,000 for the two islands. The two islands are insignificant in area and thinly populated, probably containing from 6,000 to 8,000 people in all.

Treaty of Peace Signed.

New York, July 27.—A dispatch from Panama says a treaty of peace between the government and the revolutionists has been signed. This action followed directly after the most desperate battle of the entire revolution, in which the losses on each side were very heavy. Owing, it is believed, to some misunderstanding of the terms of the armistice, brought about by the American, English and French consuls, the insurgents suddenly renewed their attacks upon the suburbs of Panama. The fighting lasted 11 hours, with the exception of only a few minutes' interval, and was very heavy from start to finish. The rebel troops made charge after charge upon the trenches of the government forces, pushing forward with remarkable bravery. Every assault was repulsed with terrible loss of life.

Colored Suspect Arrested.

Atehison, Kas., July 27.—Just after the Missouri Pacific passenger train left Atehison at 11:45 p. m. for the north, a masked negro entered the express car, covered John Kreiser, the messenger, with a revolver, and demanded the contents of the express safe. Kreiser convinced him that the safe could not be opened until the train reached Omaha, and after taking a silver watch from an express package, the robber ordered the messenger to apply the air brake. When the train slowed up the robber got off and escaped. The Atehison police have arrested a colored man, who gave his name as Davis and he is being held. Kreiser will return here to see if he can identify the suspect.

Presumption of Guilt.

New London, Mo., July 27.—The court in the trial of Alexander Jester, charged with the murder of Gilbert W. Gates charged the jury. During the instruction the court stated that where a person charged with crime breaks jail and intentionally escapes from the officers to avoid trial, such escape in the absence of qualifying circumstances raises a presumption of guilt. The defense had admitted that Jester broke out of the Mexico jail. The court further instructed the jury that unless they believe that Gilbert W. Gates is dead and he was murdered by Jester, the jury should acquit the defendant.

Miles of timber and many houses were destroyed about Cape Nome.

Big lake steamer Rensselaer was successfully launched at Cleveland.

A bold attempt to release prisoners from the Riverside (Pa.) penitentiary was thwarted.

Mortimer D. Shaw, who conducted the telegraphers' strike in 1883 filled a pauper's grave at St. Louis.

C. E. Peoples, editor of the Pomerooy Democrat, will conduct the literary bureau of the Ohio Democratic campaign.

AN ADVOCATE OF WAR.

Judge Black Quotes From a Letter Written by the Defendant.

DEVELOPMENTS IN POWERS TRIAL.

After the Shooting of Goebel Military Company Stationed in the Arsenal Took Charge of the State House.

Georgetown, Ky., July 27.—The first witness called in the Powers trial was Judge James J. D. Black of Barbourville, who was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor before the recent state convention.

He testified as to the letter which Powers wrote James Stevens of Barbourville, February 20, in which the statements, "I am largely responsible for the disorganized condition of the Democrats," "I am an open advocate of war," were used.

Private Dudley Williamson, who was a member of the military company which was called out and took charge of the state house immediately after Goebel was shot, testified that the members of the company were drawn up in the arsenal that morning prior to the shooting. They were given overcoats and sidearms about an hour before the shooting. Witness said that the company had been kept inside the arsenal since the legislature met, but previous to that day had not been uniformed.

D. H. Sinclair, former manager of the Postal Telegraph Cable company of Frankfort, testified as to many telegrams sent through his office before and after the shooting. Some related to calling out the militia, others to supplies for the mountaineers, who came to Frankfort before the shooting. Sinclair was subjected to a rigid cross-examination which was conducted by Governor Brown.

George Weaver of Denver, Colorado, was the next witness. He was in Frankfort at the time of the assassination and was just entering the capitol grounds, rear, when the shot was shot was fired. When the shot was fired witness looked in the direction of the executive building and saw the muzzle of a gun pointing from the secretary of state's office.

Weaver could not recollect anything about the weather on the day of shooting and could not give a very good account of his movements while in Frankfort. The point where the witness located himself at the time of the shooting was almost in line with the hackberry tree from which the bullet was extracted, which according to the theory of the prosecution, was the bullet that had passed through Goebel's body. He says he heard a bullet strike near him and that he then turned and left.

L. W. Hampton, a Republican member of the legislature from Knox county, testified that he was talking with Governor Taylor in January on the subject of the contest. The witness said Taylor told him that human life would have to be sacrificed. Hampton continued: "I replied, 'Well, if the governor says—' but he broke in and said to me: 'Oh, I can't advise you.' I had called on the governor to urge him to call out the militia. He told me something would have to be done before he could do this. It was in this connection that he spoke of sacrificing human life. On the day after the contest board was done witness said he heard that Taylor was cursing the Republican members. He went to the executive office and Taylor said to him: 'By God, you fellows sat over there and allowed me to be robbed!'"

Hampton also said he was in frequent conference with Caleb Powers, and asked the latter if he did not have a chance to hold on to his office even if Taylor was unelected. Powers replied to witness that he did not want the office if Taylor lost the governorship, as Goebel would have him assassinated. Powers also told witness he intended to fight till death rather than give up.

Watching Powers Trial.

Indianapolis, July 27.—Governor Mount said that he was studying the Powers trial at Georgetown, Ky., closely and that while he absolutely declined to say what action he might take on the requisition for W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley in case Powers was convicted, he said his decision on the requisitions were not irrevocable.

Actor Attempts Suicide.

Seattle, Wash., July 27.—D. Valencourt, late leading man in the "Sporting Duchess," playing with Rose Cogan, is dying in the floating mission in this city from cocaine after two desperate attempts at suicide.

THE JULY CLEARANCE SALE!

We announce to-day the opening of a grand Clearance Sale. It begins to-day and will last until the store closes NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT, JULY 28.

THE REASON! While we believe our patrons require little explanation of its principles or elaboration of its advantages, as a matter of such real importance, being the most comprehensive sale we ever had, it deserves serious attention. It is in such movements as this that certain characteristic financial principles find their best expression. It is in such powerful economical movements a store comes nearest its full duty to its public. It is good store keeping to lessen stock in July. We inaugurate this sale because our departments are full and we would rather have sales without profits than endure the business stagnation of July and feel further crowded when fall goods arrive.

THE QUALITY! Bluster and brag can perform wonders of deception. There is a prevalent and pernicious "Clearance Sale" which deludes the public into material financial loss. All things of the sort we abhor. We cannot say anything stronger of the qualities you will find here than that they are as far removed from all pestilential trash as the East is from the West. Only good goods, but cheaper than you have ever seen them.

THE ECONOMY! There is not an article priced in this ad that is necessarily lost in so large a summary—it would take this page to catalogue the collection—we can only hope these hints and suggestions will stimulate your interest. If you want to save money—come and come early.

At these prices no credit can be given. All sales strictly cash.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.
SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1900

FOLKS DO SAY

The BULLETIN's puttin' on lots of style in its handsome new quarters in the Glascock Building. Fact of the matter is we are feelin' a little pert amidst such elegant surroundings. However, the "old landmarks" are still with us, and the same old welcome awaits our friends as of yore. Everybody is cordially invited to call on the Bulletin in its new home.

Generally fair to-day and Sunday.

The Anaconda (Mont) Standard remarks that Governor Roosevelt has only to keep on the way he has begun this campaign to make "a strenuous ass of himself."

Those Cuban postal frauds continue to grow. McKinley's appointees no doubt concluded they had as much right to plunder the government as the trusts have to rob the people.

Dun's report says there were 5,356 failures during the first half of this year, with losses of $100,570,000. Of this thirty were banks and corporations with one-fourth of the whole sum! Dun's, however, must be mistaken, as the Republican editors say the country is unusually prosperous.

The Washington Times has this pertinent inquiry: "Shall the country be turned over to Hanna and his allies for another four years to be taxed and looted for their sole account and enrichment, as it has been ever since the inauguration of William McKinley in March, 1897?"

WILLIAM H. WAGNER, who was with the army of mountaineers at Frankfort last January, testified at Georgetown Thursday that on January 27th Caleb Powers, while discussing the situation at Frankfort, said in his presence: "I believe I can do something if I can get the head of the ticket to act. If he don't I'll go to the newspapers and expose the whole plot." The "head of the ticket" did act and the "whole plot" was carried out, judging from subsequent events.

It is even worse than the BULLETIN stated a few days ago. Granulated sugar is retelling at 7 c's a pound right here in Maysville, and the trust is plundering every consumer at the rate of nearly two cents on every pound used. As an exchange remarks, the trust seizes the canning and preserving season—when families are forced to lay by something to aid in subsistence during the winter months—to commit their robbery. The head of the firm now engaged in plucking the earnings of a nation stated on oath last winter that "the tariff is the mother of trusts." This is a confession that the Dingley bill, now the subject of such violent adoration by Republican papers and stumbers, is the protecting arm behind him and the outrage his trust is committing. And a vote for McKinley next fall will be a vote to endorse and sanction and continue this plundering of the people of this country.

THE BULLETIN had nothing to do with the employment of Tom Campbell as attorney for the prosecution in the Goebel case. If the matter had been left to us, he would not have been engaged. But we recognize the right of Messrs. Arthur and Justus Goebel to employ any lawyer they please to assist in the prosecution of the cowards who so basely assassinated their brother. In every murder case we have ever heard of or known of, this right of the relatives of the party slain to employ counsel to assist in bringing the murderers to justice has never been questioned. In the Goebel case Mr. Campbell does not appear as the Commonwealth's attorney, but simply as the selection or representative of the murdered man's family to assist in the prosecution of the cowardly assassins. We do not set ourselves up as the defender of Mr. Campbell; he is amply able to take care of himself. But we do say that some of those who daily delight in calling him "scoundrel" and "snitch" are in no position to throw stones.

EDITOR SAM DAVIDSON, of the West Union New Era, has been appointed Deputy Fire Commissioner for ten counties in Southern Ohio. The salary is $1,000, with $600 for traveling expenses.

His Life Was Saved.
Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 60 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

We would ask all those owing us bills to please call and settle, as we need the money.

HARRY ELLIS, of Manchester, is a member of one of the first U. S. regiments sent to China, and it is reported he was fatally wounded in one of the recent engagements.

DR. A. N. ELLIS is in receipt of a letter from his brother George W., of Wellington, Kan., telling of the big wheat harvest in that State. The latter had about 225 acres and the yield was about 4,140 bushels.

At a family reunion at the home of Mrs. John Ellis, of Adams Co., O., five generations were represented, in the persons of Michael Tomlin, aged ninety-three; Mrs. John Ellis, his daughter, upwards of seventy; C. F. Ellis, her son; Charles Ellis, C. F.'s son and little Glen Ellis, the son of Charles.

The brick men at work on the L. and N.'s new depot are having a time of it. When the walls were nearly completed they were condemned and ordered rebuilt from the water shed up. This was done and then a small portion of the west wall had to be torn down a second time and rebuilt. Now it is said the inspector has ordered a small portion of the west wall to be torn down again and rebuilt.

EARNED, NOT BOUGHT.

Such is the Reputation of "The Little Corner" in Maysville.

How hard it often is to earn and maintain a good reputation and how easy it is to lose one. As with a man's reputation so it is with other things in life. Some things achieve a reputation which stays with them. They are founded on intrinsic value. They face the public backed up by honesty and work their way quietly but thoroughly. Maysville people want no better proof of merit than the is contained in the following experience of a citizen:

Mr. C. L. Hubbard, dairyman, of 325 West Third street, says: "I have the greatest faith in Doan's Kidney Pills. The use of less than one box ended a disturbed condition of the kidneys and an inflammation of the bladder. After some time it returned, but in a lesser degree, and I procured another box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. James Wood & Son's drug store. I use of it substantiated the opinion I had already formed of this effective preparation."

Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

FARMERS

Of the market reports. Especially eager are they just now to keep posted on the WHEAT quotations. Most city folks don't care a fig whether "wheat's a bushel or corn's a peck." Not so, however, with the agriculturist. To him the daily market fluctuations are of more importance than the greatest game of base ball ever played. That which interests the farmer also becomes of much moment with us. Our interests are identical. Upon his success depends ours. Therefore, while the crop is being moved, we have arranged to publish the latest Cincinnati and Chicago quotations, for the benefit of our country friends. The corrected figures will appear in this space each day and will be obtained from a reliable source. Farmers may depend upon them being strictly up-to-date:

CINCINNATI, July 28.—Chicago wheat 75%. Cincinnati No. 2 red sold at 77.

—We sold more WIRE FIELD FENCE Thursday than on any single day since we made the great run on these goods early in the Spring. Whoever has the remotest idea of purchasing any wire fencing in the fall would do well to take advantage of prevailing prices. We cannot guarantee figures always to remain so low.
